

PEAK POTENTIALS TRAINING

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Success Resources Acquires Peak Potentials Training
Combination Will Grow Personal Success Training Globally

San Diego, California, November 7, 2011 – Peak Potentials Training announced today that it has been acquired by Success Resources, a event production company that stages live and online events around the world in the personal success training category. Following the acquisition, Peak Potentials will be operating with the support of Success Resources to grow the North American operations of their business by continuing its valuable work in the area of training, education, and self-development.

T. Harv Eker, Peak Potentials Founder, is continuing to support the operations, saying “I’m confident that their extensive events and seminar experience will help Peak Potentials grow the North American seminar business so that we can continue to transform and positively impact the lives of millions and millions of people.” Clients of Peak Potentials will soon see the result of this effort as new online support systems are introduced, client care procedures at events and after are enhanced, and additional events across North America are made available.

Success Resources has been producing events designed by T. Harv Eker including the Millionaire Mind Intensive, Enlightened Warrior Training Camp, Mission to Millions, Train the Trainer and Guerrilla Business School/Intensive in Asia, Australia, and Europe since 2007.

Founded in Singapore in 1993 by Richard Tan, Success Resources has grown to become Asia’s largest seminar organizer, with events in over 15 countries. The company has been successful in attracting other internationally acclaimed gurus and thought leaders to speak at its events. These include Anthony Robbins, Robert Kiyosaki, Michael Porter, former United States President Bill Clinton, and former United Kingdom Prime Minister Tony Blair. Success Resources is headquartered in Singapore and managed by an international team with extensive events and seminar experience.

Senior leadership at both companies is excited about the mutual benefit of the sale. To coincide with the ownership changes Peak Potentials Training named Adam Markel, a successful trainer, attorney and entrepreneur, as Chief Executive Officer.
